

QUALITY ENGINEER - Electronics, Windsor, CT

Electronic PCB Assembly Company is seeking a full time employee to maintain and improve quality management in compliance with ISO regulations. Position assesses failures and quality data to identify trends. Assists in ISO/GMP development and implementing new high profile documentation/corrective and preventative actions (CAPA) system based on 8 D principles. Assist with audits, inspection and review process to ensure efficiency. Qualified candidates must be a self-starter, team player, have strong computer skills, excellent verbal and written communication skills and completed bachelor's degree in related field with min. 5 yrs exp in related field. Knowledge of ISO/GMP environments and ISO 13485, IPC standards, PCB inspection, ESD procedures and requirements a must. Knowledge of MIL Spec and regulatory concerns (TUV, UL, CSA, CE, FDA, etc.) ideal. Company offers 401 (k) and profit sharing plan, medical ins., LT & ST disability & more.

Electronic PCB assembly company is seeking a full time employee to maintain and improve Quality management in compliance with ISO procedures. Position assess process controls, Validation of process, provides input into the selection of materials and process used. Ensures that the best possible practices are used during assembly process. Evaluates failures of the process to determine root cause and methods to eliminate potential for re-occurrence. Candidate must have a minimum of 5 years of RECENT experience in the selection and application of soldering methods, re-flow, wave solder and selective soldering. Must be familiar with the different equipment used in the SMT assembly process and control of such. Will perform Process audits to ensure that processes are being performed in a controlled manner to minimize potential for errors. Must be a team player with strong computer skills, written and verbal communication skills, and completed a bachelor's degree in a related field. Knowledge of ISO/GMP's ISO 13485, and IPC standards a must.

Experience must be especially from assembly side not just fabrication.

Wynn B. Schoolnik

Infini-Staff
92 Deerfield Road
Windsor, CT 06095
(860) 525-0821 x2283