

positive results for life

The Respiratory and Monitoring Solutions Business Group is a $1.2 billion dollar division of Covidien, formerly Tyco Healthcare. RMS systems are used to monitor, diagnose and treat respiratory disease and sleep disorders, and provide life sustaining ventilation and oxygen support for patients. We are currently recruiting for the following positions:

SR. QUALITY ENGINEER - Boulder, CO Corp HQ – relo provided

Position Summary:

Provide quality engineering support in the design and development of medical device products, and facilitate the application of design controls. Translate Quality Standards into processes and procedures and apply these to the new product design process.

Minimum Requirements:

BS in an engineering discipline, EE preferred

5+ yrs of quality engineering experience

Skilled in test plan development and root cause failure analysis

Skilled in statistical methods, including ANOVA, statistical process control, sampling plans, gauge R&R, and design of experiments. Familiar with reliability analysis and test methods

Familiar with ISO 14971 or strong experience in risk evaluation techniques, such as FMEA and/or fault tree analysis

CQE certification desirable

For more information about these opportunities, go to: www.covidien.com/careers. Pull up jobs for Boulder, CO or send your resume to Tim.Wasik@Covidien.com

Covidien is an Affirmative Action / Equal Opportunity Employer.